INSTRUCTOR OFFICE HOURS - (AIM + E-mail)

GREETINGS!

Over the next 4 weeks, the quickest way to reach me throughout the day will be via AIM or via email (jgarlic@fullsail.com). Please also note the following office hours:

- The best days to reach me are Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays (BEFORE 5pm)...
- IMPORTANT: This means that the worst days to reach me are Fridays (--after 12:00 Noon), Saturday and Sundays. I will try to answer general questions, however, I most likely will not be available. Please plan your homework schedule accordingly.
- I am usually available via AIM (off & on) during the early morning, plus most late afternoons.
- You may also contact via phone using the numbers below, however, please IM or E-mail me FIRST if you need help.

If you need 1:1 help, I prefer to schedule a screen sharing (using a mic) instead of text/chats and emails back and forth. It is so much more affective and efficient to work with you while seeing your code live while discussing problem solving techniques.

- I will respond to your questions as quickly as possible (or within 24 - 48 hours depending on your method of contact).
- I recommend you add me to your Instant Message via AOL ASAP (---worth 2% of your grade!) Thank You.
